ITINERARY

SUNDAY Day 1 Arrive Stockholm

Take your first stroll through Sweden's capital and explore some of the many sights and tourist attractions. In the evening a welcome briefing and bike fitting takes place. Overnight stay in Stockholm.

MONDAY Day 2 Stockholm to Södertälje Approx. 60 km

The bike trip takes you along an ancient trade route that has existed since the Viking Age, skirting along Sweden's third largest lake, Lake Mälaren. On the way, you pass the World Heritage listed Drottningholm Palace. Here, right on the shore of Lake Mälaren, the royal family grew up. Also located in the grounds is the Chinese Pavilion dating from the 18th century. You continue by short ferry trip towards Södertälje. At Sturehov, located in eastern Lake Mälaren, it's time for a late lunch. Södertälje, home of Scania is located south of Stockholm where Lake Mälaren is connected to the Baltic Sea through the lock in Södertälje canal. Overnight stay in Södertälje.

TUESDAY Day 3 Södertälje to Gothenburg Approx. 15 - 35 km

At 8.30am you will be sitting in the express train to Gothenburg, which you will reach around lunch time. In the afternoon there will be enough time to explore the archipelago of Gothenburg. It takes less than an hour by ferry (not included) to reach the southern archipelago and the car free islands of Styrösö and Donsö. Enjoy the idyllic surrounding of the archipelago and maybe take a dip in the sea before you head back to Gothenburg. Enjoy the evening in one of the numerous restaurants of the city.

WEDNESDAY Day 4 Gothenburg to Kungsbacka Approx. 40 - 65 km

As you cycle out of town you'll pass Särö, the former playground of the ancient royal family and Gothenburg high society. Cliffs, lush forests, bays and marinas line your path. In the late afternoon you reach Kungsbacka, a delightful town with an impressive old centre.

THURSDAY Day 5 Kungsbacka to Varberg Approx. 60 - 75 km

Enjoy breath-taking views on today's route past farms and fields, and the amazing the Li burial ground with its more than 100 Iron Age grave stones. Once you reach Åsa the sea once again accompanies you to Varberg. As you approach the small town its castle towers over you. Take time to visit the fortress and the Varberg County Museum to see Bockstensmannen – the remains of a medieval man's body – one of the best-preserved finds in Europe from that era.

FRIDAY Day 6 Varberg to Falkenberg to Helsingborg Approx. 40 km

Look forward to picturesque fishing villages and handicraft. In Träslövsläge you can feast on freshly cooked lobsters and stroll through the older parts of the city. You continue to Falkenberg, one of the oldest cities in the area. Afterwards you go by train (fare not included), journey 90 minutes to Helsingborg where you stay overnight.

SATURDAY Day 7 Helsingborg to Helsingør to Copenhagen Approx. 55 km

After breakfast it's a 20 minute ferry ride to Helsingør and you are in Denmark (ca. SEK 450 per person, not included). Take your time to stroll through the picturesque harbour city then cycle to Kronberg Castle, a medieval ruin located on an island, before you continue along beautiful sandy beaches, wonderful landscapes and magnificent forests to the pulsating capital city of Denmark.

SUNDAY Day 8 Arrangements end after breakfast in Copenhagen.

GRADE/TERRAIN

Easy to moderate. You cycle on well sign-posted bike paths and gravel roads and side roads with little traffic. Short sections are on roads with more traffic. The route is flat to slightly hilly. Approx. 285 km by bike.
